KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dr. Margaret Gichuru

Dr. Margaret Gichuru, who serves on SUNY Cortland's School of Education faculty, has focused her research interests on inclusive programs and culturally responsive teaching.

An assistant professor in the Childhood/Early Childhood Education Department, Gichuru teaches an assessment course for the inclusive early childhood education (birth-grade 2) major and the Children, Families and Communities course for the early childhood and childhood education major (birth-grade 6).

She earned a Bachelor of Education from Kenyatta University in Kenya and a Master of Education and Doctor of Education from Idaho State University.

Dr. Kim Wieczorek

Dr. Kim Wieczorek currently chairs the School of Education's Childhood/Early Childhood Education Department, where she is an associate professor.

Her academic areas of focus are inclusive teacher education and recruiting young people to the teaching profession.

Wieczorek received a Bachelor of Arts from University of Minnesota, a Master of Arts from Columbia University and a doctorate from University of Wisconsin-Madison.
