

The President's List is the College's highest honor for students who excel academically. It acknowledges students enrolled in a minimum of 12 credit hours who achieve grades of A- or better in each of their courses. In Fall 2016, 7.7 percent of the full-time student body reached this level of excellence.

Academic Hall of Fame Inductee Robert J. McMahon '84

During his lengthy career in international journalism, Robert J. McMahon '84 has strived to present complex subjects with even-handed clarity to help create a better understanding of America's role in the world.

As managing editor at the Council on Foreign Relations, an influential, nonpartisan think tank in Washington, D.C., McMahon oversees all news content on the council's website. His team produces award-winning multi-media backgrounders, videos and other projects.

Through more than three decades of journalism, McMahon has demonstrated leadership in reporting and analyzing foreign policy developments from Central Europe, the United Nations, Washington, D.C., and the world.

Previously, McMahon served as news director for Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty in Prague, and later in the U.S. as a correspondent covering the United Nations.

McMahon joined the Associated Press in 1987 as a reporter and served as editor on the international desk in New York City. He began his career in 1985 for Gannett Westchester-Rockland Newspapers.

McMahon, who grew up in Carmel, N.Y., graduated magna cum laude in political science and French from SUNY Cortland in 1984. He earned a master's degree in international relations at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University in 2004.
